Schedule your appointment

Generally, a citizen of a foreign country who wishes to enter the United States must first obtain a visa, either a nonimmigrant visa for a temporary stay or an immigrant visa for permanent residence. Citizens of qualified countries may be also able to visit the U.S. without a visa under the Visa Waiver Program. If you do not qualify for the Visa Waiver Program or are traveling to study, work, or participate in an exchange program, you must apply for a nonimmigrant visa.

Nonimmigrant Visa Applicants Applying in Their Country of Residence or Nationality

Applicants for U.S. nonimmigrant visas should schedule their visa interview appointments at the U.S. embassy or consulate in their country of residence or nationality. Visa application fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. For more information, go to this page.

Guidance for encountering "Access limitation" warning message on the appointment calendar page.

You will receive the warning message "Access limitation" on the appointment calendar page, if you may have installed browser plug-ins and/or extensions designed for robotic automation.

To proceed with scheduling your appointment, you are requested to remove any automation tools installed on your device or browser and then try again after waiting at least 24 hours.

Please visit Terms and conditions page and check Prohibited conduct section to learn more. Please refrain from using means highlighted in Prohibited conduct section to avoid being blocked again

Scheduling your appointment

Applicants for U.S. visas are required to schedule an appointment at the Visa Application Center (VAC) and at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate. You must schedule the VAC appointment at least 2 business days before the interview appointment date. You can appointment at least 2 business days before the interview appointment date. You can schedule both appointments, online using this website. You may contact the call center for further assistance.

Kindly note, that family members like spouse, children, parents, siblings, grandparents, and other relatives where family ties can be proven, can apply together using the 'Dependent' option available when scheduling appointments. Applicants applying for the same purpose but who are not family members must apply individually

Supporting documents

To schedule your nonimmigrant visa appointment, you must have the following information and documents available:

- A passport valid for travel to the United States with a validity date at least six months beyond your intended period of stay in the United States (unless country-specific agreements provide exemptions). If more than one person is included in your passport, each person desiring a visa must submit an application.
- Your visa application (MRV) fee payment receipt
- Your DS-160 confirmation page
- Your e-mail address
- If applicable, required documents based on visa class (such as a petition approval for petition-based visas; more information about visa types and information about each can be found on the Department of State's website).

Restrictions on changing appointments

The number of times you may reschedule your appointment without penalty is limited. When you have reached the limit, you will receive a warning message. After receiving this warning message, you will have two options - you may either attend the appointment or cancel it. If you cancel the appointment, the fee payment will become invalid and you will have to pay a new fee in order to book a new appointment. If you fail to attend your Visa Application appointment you will be marked as a "no-show". Please plan accordingly to avoid unnecessary delay.

If you are unable to attend your appointment you should cancel your appointment two business days prior to your scheduled interview appointment to avoid being marked as a "no-show".

Visa Application Centers (VAC)

Most applicants will be required to have an appointment at a Visa Application Center (VAC) prior to their appointment at the Consular Sections. Biometric information including fingerprints and digital photographs will be collected at the VAC.

Applicants for U.S. visas are required to appear in person for an appointment at the VAC and the visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate. You must schedule the VAC appointment at least 2 business days before the interview appointment date. You can schedule both appointments, online using this website. You may contact the call center for further assistance.

Appointment wait times

All applicants are processed as efficiently as possible and the U.S. Embassy or Consulate strives to keep the wait time for appointments as short as possible. That said, the earlier you book your appointment, the more likely you are to be able to get the interview date and time you want.

Nonimmigrant visa applicants are encouraged to apply at least three months in advance of the intended date of travel.

Although visa processing time is typically seven to ten working days, processing time for specific cases may vary due to individual circumstances and other special requirements.
