Attend your interview

The U.S. Embassy or Consulate and Visa Application Centers observe both U.S. and India holidays and will be closed on those dates.

Instructions for applicants on attending their biometrics appointment and Consular interview are provided below.

For Biometric appointment at the Visa application center:

- All applicants are required to attend their biometric appointment, except for those under the age of 14 or over the age of 79. These applicants are not required to appear in person. A family member or representative may submit the required documents, as stated in the appointment letter, on the scheduled date and time to complete the process.

For Interview at the Embassy/Consulate:

- All applicants, including those under the age of 14 or over the age of 79, must appear in person for the visa interview at the Embassy or Consulate on the scheduled appointment date and time.

Failure to attend the interview will result in being marked as a "No Show," and you will be required to pay a new visa fee and restart the entire application process

More Actions

Application refused under INA 221(g)

Refusal under section 221(g) means that essential information is missing from an application or that an application requires additional administrative processing. The consular officer who interviews you will tell you at the end of your interview if your case is being refused under 221(g). The consular officer will either tell you that the case has to undergo administrative processing or ask you to submit additional information.
